"Times, of Course"

That's what all the newsboys say when asked which Barre paper sells the best. There is no doubt about it.

Northfield seems to be waking up to the fact that a municipal water plant may be a good thing to have after all. It is something that will have to come sooner or later.

A Waterbury man did not like the way the school ma'am was teaching his children, and he proceeded to tell the latter what he thought in language more forceful than decent. As a result he was arrested and found guilty of breach of the peace. The teacher may realize now that there is more than one way of correcting the teacher for what he thinks are faults. For our part there is a degree of satisfaction in knowing that the man got his deserts. The teacher may have been wrong, but that was no excuse for the man to go beyond the bounds of decency in telling her so. The country school ma'am's life is not too flower-strewn.

"Big Bill" Devery has been one of the favorites of the New York election, and while he was not in the running, his campaign furnished a good deal of amusement. "Big Bill" protested, when giving out sums of money, that he was not buying votes but was spending his cash legitimately. To his followers he gave freedom, however, to accept all the bribes offered by the other candidates and then to vote like "honest men" for Devery. He counseled his men as follows:

My advice to all voters is that if anybody offers them money for their vote, take it. Take it three or four times if you can get it, but when you go in that there booth, vote like honest men, and don't pay any attention to any promises you made to people who paid you to vote their way.

Theodore Roosevelt certainly set a good example for the citizens of the country yesterday when he travelled from Washington to his home at Oyster Bay, N. Y., for the purpose of casting his ballot in the state election. Of course the ordinary voter is not in a position to duplicate the performance of the president as he cannot have a special car at his convenience to whisk him miles to the polling-place and then whisk him back again. But to those of us who are disposed not to perform the priceless function of casting our ballots in our own cities, towns and villages, when the polling-places are, perchance, only a few steps away, the action of President Roosevelt is a stinging rebuke. If the president of the country can spare a day from his duties to do so apparently a simple thing then the other citizens of the country can spare a few minutes to do the same. The president's example will be a good thing to remember when the next opportunity for voting comes.

May Send Pig Iron Abroad.
Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 4.—It is said on good authority that southern iron operators are formulating a plan for the exportation of 50,000 tons of Alabama pig iron for the dual purpose of ridding the yards of accumulated stock and giving a healthier tone to the domestic market. Continental prices are still somewhat too low to admit of exportation at a profit, but a trifle stiffening abroad would make it practicable under existing circumstances.

Scholarships in High School.
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Colonel Augustus Jacobson, who was an aid-de-camp of General Sherman, has bequeathed one-fourth of his estate, about $75,000, to a fund for the establishment of high school scholarships to enable poor children to gain an education. Colonel Jacobson died on Oct. 15 while attending the unveiling of the monument of General Sherman.

An Exception to the Rule.

THREE BILLS FOR CHAMBERLAIN.

First Chambermaid—Say, Sadie, Jimmie Nocsah proposed to me last night, but when he saw that sign up there he backed out.—New York Times.

Uncle Sam to Miss Canada.
I am sorry for you, sister, and I know your case is sad, And, though mine has been the profit, yet It hurts me most as bad, And of course I do not blame you if you feel a little sore Since my line fence was allowed to run jam up by your back door.

But remember while in anger you defy the motherland With the threat of independence and your sons undaunted stand With their bosoms well inflated for a fiercely warlike shout That your Uncle Sam 'll git you if you don't watch out.

It 'll do you good to whimper, for you've not been vexed by strife And the things most of us suffer in the nursery of life, And you've yet to learn that living hasn't quite lost all its joy Just because some bigger infant has purchased a treasured toy.

There's a hint of future greatness in the music of your sob, And I'm glad your heart, unfettered, at the thought of freedom throbs, And I hope you'll soon feel better; but, remember, when you pout, That your Uncle Sam 'll git you if you don't watch out.

Important Insurance Decision.
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 4.—In a decision in the United States district court here Judge John F. Phillips has held that insurance companies may enforce the antislavery clause where previously entered into by the insured. The decision was in the case of James Whitfield, a well known newspaper sporting editor, who killed himself. Whitfield insured for $5,000, receiving a policy that contained a clause specifying that $500 only should be recovered in case of suicide. Although the statutes of Missouri declare that insurance companies may not make suicide a defense in refusing to pay a policy, Judge Phillips held that "as the pleading of the contract in question voluntarily entered into by the parties goes merely to the question of amount of the recovery and not to defeat a recovery, my conviction is that the plaintiff is justly entitled to recover the sum of $500."

Race Issue in Medical Society.
St. Louis, Nov. 4.—The St. Louis Medical society is struggling with a serious problem. Seven hundred members are asking themselves, "Shall we admit negro physicians to the society?" Some of the leading members answer "yes;" many "no." The question will be answered decisively at the next meeting of the society, on Saturday evening. The proposition was thrust upon the society by Dr. Norvell Sharp, who at the last session moved the admission of two well known colored practitioners. Membership in the local society would make the negro physicians eligible to membership in the national society, which, according to members here, has no negro members.

Bulgarians Expect War.
London, Nov. 4.—A special correspondent of the Times, writing from Philippopolis, says he is informed that a number of Turkish families who are Bulgarian subjects are selling out and emigrating to Turkey. Although the regular army maintains all the strategic points as hitherto, the Bulgarians are positive that the present first line would be able to hold these points under any eventual long enough to allow complete mobilization in the rear. It is the opinion of the Bulgarian army that the new reform scheme for Macedonia will not prevent hostilities in the spring.

Southern Pacific Oil Purchase.
San Francisco, Nov. 4.—Between three and four million shares of the stock of the Associated Oil company, held by the Reed Crude Oil and the San Joaquin Oil companies, have just passed into the hands of the Southern Pacific company. Flood Victim Identified.
Catskill, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The clothing taken from the badly decomposed body of a man which was found floating in the river off Germantown and was buried in the potter's field at Hudson on the 27th ult., has been identified by Mrs. George O'Brien of this place as belonging to her brother, William Dwyer, aged twenty-six years, who during the flood on Oct. 9 was drowned by the carrying away of the bridge spanning Catskill creek.

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 4.—Officers of the Vandalla announced an increase in pay to employees of the western division, including the Illinois lines. The advance applies to engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and baggage men on both passenger and freight trains. KIMONOS FOR STREET WEAR

Chicago Club Women Indorse Them For Shopping and Theaters.

The Japanese kimono and the flowing silken robes worn by the orientals, ornamented with exquisitely embroidered flowers and birds—these are the ideal garments for women from the artistic standpoint. Members of the North Side Art club, Chicago, reached this conclusion after Dr. Yamei Kin, a native Chinese, had drawn parallels between the crude, abrupt lines of the tailor made gown and the graceful curves of the kimono during a talk on "Chinese Women" the other forenoon, says the Chicago Tribune.

The speaker wore the native costume, and her hearers went into ecstasies over the delicate colorings and the graceful lines of the loose garment. Dr. Yamei Kin urged that the dress of the oriental women is practical as well as beautiful, and after telling why it was so the American women agreed that there is no dress quite like the kimono.

They urged that American women should adopt the dress of the orientals and appear in kimonos on all occasions—on the street, in their homes and at the theaters.

"Wouldn't the kimono be cold in winter time?" was asked.

"Cold?" echoed Dr. Yamei Kin. "No; not cold. You may put on as many kimonos as you want to, the one over the other, until you have enough on to keep you warm."

"It would be a good idea if women would adopt the Japanese kimono for general wear," declared Mrs. La Verne W. Noyes, president of the club. "They could be worn on all occasions, and then the pockets in the sleeves would be a great convenience to the Chicago women. They are large enough to hold samples and purse, almost everything." Mrs. F. W. Tracy thought they would be excellent for shopping, and Mrs. R. L. Greenlee declared that the location of the pockets would do much to protect women against holdups and pickpockets.

SENATOR PLATT'S TREAT.

Gave Express Boys a $2,000 "Good Time" in Honor of Wedding.

The marriage of Senator Thomas C. Platt has made him so happy that he wants the many thousand employees of the United States Express company to be happy with him. One thousand of them in Chicago were recently given "a good time," and the men understood that it was the wish and at the expense of the senator.

The entertainment began with a vaudeville performance, followed by a dance and a dinner. Employees in other cities are said to have been feasted and danced in a similar manner.

"We were told to go ahead and get up an entertainment to cost about $2,000," said one of the employees, "and the company would settle. We did, and it was a big success. We learned it was Senator Platt's way of having us celebrate his marriage."

Duke of Manchester's Purchase.

Considerable has been written about the Duke of Manchester's new purchase, but few people know that Lorenzo Henry, who sold the castle directly to the Duke of Manchester, is one of the oldest friends of the young duchess, and when she was a young girl he stayed with her parents at her home in Cincinnati, says the London Outlook. Mr. Henry is the son of the former owner, who built the Irish castle in Connemara.

Equal Distribution of Space!

Now Listen to This!

A perfect Shoe should contain not a single particle of space more than necessary, otherwise the Shoe becomes large and ungainly. The Dorothy Dodd Shoe leaves more space for the foot than any other Shoe we know of, yet the Shoe itself is absolutely smaller than the ordinary Shoe. That is because it equally distributes space.
